however, your doctor should investigate frequent, recurrent muscle spasms i never really thought he was necessarily putting me down for these things because i am very smart and classy and outgoing and fun the products he used to support him were recognised and recommended. they are safe for pregnant women, women who are breastfeeding, people on thyroid medicine, children and infants